GENERAL REPORT.

The report of 1894 showed a circulation of 8,124 books; of 1895, 11,682 books; while this report of 1896 shows the astonishing figures of 14,243 volumes loaned during the year. But the gratifying feature of the increase is not found so much in the total as in the percentage showing the character of the people's reading. In 1894, only .084 of the books loaned were classed otherwise than as fiction, in 1895, .155; and in the year ending January 1, 1896, .340! We think this sufficiently demonstrates the potentiality of the library as an educational factor.

Early last spring, we adopted as a rule of the library, a system whereby two books may be borrowed at a time, provided only one shall be a work of fiction. A few have availed themselves of this privilege. We recommend this plan to all borrowers. An historical romance, for instance, with a reliable work of history covering the events of the story, is an interesting and instructive combination.

The great need at the library at present is a printed catalogue, furnished free of charge to each family using the library. More than a thousand books have been added since the old catalogue was printed. It is a bibliothecal adage that a small library with a good catalogue is worth more than a large library poorly equipped in this respect.

The town is indebted to Mr. J. H. Bissell, of Chicago, a gentleman boarding for the summer at the Fiske House, for the valuable gift of Bigelow's, "Life of Samuel J. Tilden" (2 vol.), recently published, and Dodge's "Cæsar" in the "Great Captains" series. The most magnificent gift, however, came from her who has done so much for this town, Mrs. R. C. Waterston, who presented us with her check for $50.00

Hon. Charles R. Corning gave us a copy of his valuable work of travel, "Aalesund to Tetuan," with his autograph inscription. Such indications of interest in our library, coming from such outside sources, should encourage us at home, to do everything within our power to maintain the library in its present condition, commanding respect and assistance from abroad.

Miss Marion L. Weston, has continued to serve the public satisfactorily as librarian.

C. EDWARD WRIGHT, Chairman,
P. T. KELLOGG, Secretary
H. W. HURD, Treasurer,
